All Owners, Managers and Representatives of Cyprus Ships

Subject: Obligation to report casualties, personal accidents, or serious illnesses

As a result of recent incidents, we wish to remind Owners/Managers of their obligation, as set out in the provisions of The Merchant Shipping (Masters and Seamen) Laws, to report to this Department any casualties, personal accidents or serious illnesses occurring on a ship.

In particular, they are requested to forward in due course the Master's report, accompanied by the relevant log book-extracts, seamen's statement, medical certificates and any other relevant documents, as appropriate, whenever such an incident occurs to a ship under their ownership or management.

Strict compliance to this obligation will be highly appreciated.
