

18 February 2022		List of language requirements for the owner's manual for all EU/EEA countries
	Austria
	Belgium	Languages Dutch, French and German.
	Bulgaria	According to art. 15(4) of the Ordinance on the essential requirements and conformity assessment of recreational crafts and recreational crafts for personal use, when placed on the Bulgarian market, the owner's manual should be in Bulgarian.
	Croatia	In Croatia, the owner's manual and DoC shall be in Croatian language.
	Cyprus	According to national regulations( P.I. 191/2017) the owner's manual must be in the Greek language and if possible in the English language as well.
	Czech Republic.	Owner's manual (all) MUST be in Czech language. Other languages can be used as additional languages in manuals.
	Denmark	In Denmark we accept Danish, Swedish and Norwegian if it cannot be misunderstood.
	Estonia	The owner's manual should be in Estonian.
	Finland	In Finland, the manual shall be in both Finnish and Swedish languages.
	France	In France, owner's manuals must be in French. It's indicated in Article R5113-18 of Code des transports (RCD II is transposed into French legislative text "Code des transports").
	Germany	Owner's manual must be in German (Art. 6 (3) of our national transposition of RCD).
	Greece	According to national regulations (Joint Ministerial Decision 13926/DTBN 216/08.02.2016), the owner's manual must be in the Greek language.
	Hungary
	Iceland	According to the national regulation for Recreational Crafts, the owner's manual shall be in Icelandic (National regulation no. 130/2016).
	Ireland	English. It is optional for it to be in Irish in addition to English, but not mandated.
	Italy	Owner's Manual must be in Italian language in all its parts. It can be written in any other language in addition to Italian.
	Latvia	The owner's manual should be in Latvian language. Other languages easy understandable for end-users can be used as additional.
	Lithuania	The owners manual must be in Lithuanian language.
	Luxembourg	Luxembourg: the owner's manual should be in one of the 3 official languages: French, German, Luxembourgish.
	Malta	English or Maltese

	The Netherlands	Owner's manual: Dutch or English DoC: Dutch
	Norway	Norwegian. Swedish and Danish if not misunderstood.
	Poland	The owners manual must be in Polish language.
	Portugal	In Portugal, according to national transposition of RCD, the manual and the DoC must be in Portuguese (Decreto-Lei n.º 26-A/2016, de 9 de junho).
	Romania	Art. 7(7) and art. 9(4) of Government Decision 464/2017 transposing Directive 2013/53/UE require that information included in Owner's Manual shall be in Romanian or other languages easy understandable by consumers.
	Slovenia	In Slovenia, the owner's manual and DoC shall be in slovenian language.
	Slovakia	According to national regulations, the owner's manual must be in the Slovak language.
	Spain	According to our national transposition of RCD, in Spain the manual must be in Spanish (Art. 18 of the Royal Decree 98/2016, March 11).
	Sweden	The owner's manual and the DoC shall be in the Swedish language.
	Switzerland	The following languages are accepted for owner's manuals or DoCs in Switzerland: German, French, Italian or English